CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD.

In presenting this class book to the members of '26, the Editorial Staff hopes and sincerely desires that it be acceptable and interesting to each and every member. It represents the best efforts of the staff; it is the connecting link between the past and present; and it should recall to you the pleasant, carefree hours of your high school days. If we have achieved this, our work can be considered a success.

FACULTY

TRIBUTE TO THE FACULTY

We can hardly realize that this last year is over. It means that our High School days with all their joys and sorrows are ended, and that we must go out and fight our battle on larger fields.

It is especially fitting, at this time, that we should express our gratitude for and appreciation of the untiring efforts made by our beloved teachers on our behalf. They have helped us out of our difficulties, encouraged us when we met with disappointment, and have readily given us the advice we so sorely needed.

In the days to come when we shall look back at our High School days, we will better realize the fullness of the debt we owe to these kind friends. In the foresight of that day, "1926" goes forth from its Alma Mater wishing her teachers every pleasure and happiness in their chosen profession.

EBEN S. COBB

Mr. Cobb, our respected and admired principal, with his thoughtful advice and helping hand in times of need, has successfully guided "26" through its four troublesome years of High School. It is with much gratitude and deep regret that we take leave of this friend of every class that comes and goes.

LEWIS S. GORDON, JR.

In writing of "Doc" we dip our pen in the ink of praise—for whose classes have we found more interesting? Whose interest has been more with us?

In dramatics—it has been "Doc" whose earnest efforts in our behalf has enabled us to put on many excellent plays.

"Doc's" sense of companionship with the pupils has gained from our class a host of friends who wish him every happiness for the future.

ANNE T. COMASKEY

Miss Comaskey has only been with us for three years, but she hadn't been here long before we all knew her well. She taught a great many of us our first year of French and we were sorry to learn that she was not going to teach French II. She also has charge of the German classes. There aren't any of the graduates of '26 who will forget you, Miss Comaskey.

JOHN F. COMISKEY

Mr. Comiskey can be called "notre grand professeur." He entered C. H. S. during the last part of our Junior year, and has been with us ever since. Only students taking Bookkeeping from him know what a fine teacher he is. He certainly had a hard job teaching us his methods of Bookkeeping and making us give up our own methods. At the end of explaining of a new "Function" Mr. Comiskey's favorite expression is "Comprenez-vous?"

ELEANOR M. DRISCOLL

Miss Driscoll is one of the most popular teachers we have ever come in contact with. Very efficiently she rehearsed the High School Orchestra and most important of all she prepared a charming program for practically the first important event in our life, namely, our graduation from Clinton High School.

RAYMOND F. DYER

Ray didn't become a teacher in Clinton High School until last year, but it gave us sufficient time to get acquainted and it wasn't long before he became one of the most popular teachers in High School. Ray has also been the very efficient promoter of inter-class athletic contests and the very capable coach of the Senior Football and Basketball teams. Altogether Ray is a good scout and we will always remember him as the especial friend of '26.

MARY T. GIBBONS

Miss Gibbons, teacher of Physical Training, has proven a valuable asset, as our athletic ability will show. The girls took a great interest in the gym classes conducted by her. The girls' hiking clubs, the girls' basketball teams, the T-Dance and many other activities, in which we girls participated, were all successful accomplishments of Miss Gibbons. We all hope that she will long continue her gym classes in C. H. S.

MAY HARRITY

Miss Harrity is a very petite and pleasing teacher of Commercial subjects in our school, and we feel that she has certainly helped to advance the standards of our Business Department to a high degree, and we congratulate her upon her success and hope that it will continue.

ROLAND B. HOUSTON

Not all of us have taken Mechanical Arts, but those who have not, will undoubtedly find it interesting to view the work carried on under Mr. Houston's guidance. As a matter of fact, only a few of our boys are acquainted with Mr. Houston, but their reports certainly enable us to recognize in him a very capable and efficient instructor.

PATRICK F. HYNES

Only those who have been pupils under Mr. Hynes' guidance can fully realize the efforts that he puts forth to increase the pupils' knowledge of Latin. "Pat" may seem very stern outside the classroom, but to those who had the good fortune of being in his classes, he presents a kindly interest and ever present willingness to assist the student to work his way out of the mazes of Caesar, Cicero and Virgil. We hope that his success in his chosen profession may continue.

NELLIE KENT

Miss Kent is the famous exponent of planes, solids, cylinders and equations and we feel that she has certainly been the prop of many of us in our difficulties with math. Nellie's kindly good-humor and her patience with her erring students has endeared her to the members of 1926. Miss Kent, because of her great knowledge of mathematics in all its branches, has made her classes very interesting and profitable. In leaving, we heartily thank her for her assistance.

MARY KERRIGAN

Miss Kerrigan is one of our most popular teachers in High School. She began teaching when we entered as Freshmen. Neither members of her classes nor study pupils have escaped her subtlety. She takes great delight in making rules and regulations, and in giving memory passages to miscreants. Her ready wit sometimes in English more often in French provokes many bursts of laughter.

ALICE B. MacNABB

Although Miss MacNabb is not so very well known, the more fortunate of us realize that her smile is friendly. Miss MacNabb is one of the teachers who tried to turn our footsteps into the right path. Those who remain in C. H. S. must in time realize her worthiness just as we did.

JOSEPH F. McCAFFERY

As a coach—as a teacher—one invariably thinks of "Joe" in the first role. Under his supervision, there has been only praise for the various athletic teams which he has coached. To every boy he has been a friend and pal—one that will not be soon forgotten.

All who have been in his classes have found them interesting and instructive. If a difficult problem was to be solved, "Joe" was always willing to help.

JOHN P. McGRAIL

Mr. McGrail is one of the most universally liked members of the faculty. Although he coached Junior class teams which gave 1926 many anxious hours, and his U. S. History made our hearts flutter with fear, we all feel that we owe a great deal of what we are to the contact we had with Mr. McGrail, both in and out of the classroom.

HENRY J. McSHERRY

Physics and Chemistry are Mr. McSherry's subjects, and although these subjects are known as difficult, Mr. McSherry certainly has done his best to make them interesting, and he has succeeded. We hope that he will continue as a teacher in Clinton High School, so that future pupils of C. H. S. will have the advantage of studying the sciences under his benignant supervision.

JOHN J. MITCHELL

"Jack" became the teacher of Freshman Latin when we were Sophomores, so we did not have the advantage of instruction in elementary Latin under his guidance. However, we know him to be a capable teacher and the friend of each and every one of his pupils. Best of luck—Mr. Mitchell—in your life work.

ELIZABETH R. ROWAN

Miss Rowan is a recent addition to our faculty, and we all haven't had the pleasure of her classes, but those of us who have, realize that there are a few subjects which can be interesting.

Here is one new teacher who soon taught us that she held the upper hand in discipline—oh, how near the Lecture Room is to the office!

We are certain of her future success as a teacher from the excellent start she has made in her first year as a teacher.

MILDRED A. SMITH

Miss Smith's ability as a drawing teacher has been very well shown by the excellent work accomplished. She has also done much to make her drawing classes practical, pleasant, and profitable, and we sincerely hope that she will continue her good work in the art department of Clinton High School.

SUSAN D. SMITH

Miss Smith has taught the majority of us, in our Sophomore and Junior English. Everyone enjoys her classes, for she makes them very interesting. She also gave us our instructions in Library Lessons. She is willing to help anyone either after school or in her spare minutes, and she is almost always busy. Miss Smith is one of the best liked teachers in High School and is certainly well worth our affection.

ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Miss Thompson, in her first year at C. H. S., has earned a very good reputation as a teacher of science and history. Although very petite and possessed of a very quiet disposition, she has, none the less, won the popularity of her pupils. We hope she will be as successful in her future years at C. H. S. as she has been during her first year. Bon Voyage, Miss Thompson.

HANNAH M. WALSH

Miss Walsh is a very proficient teacher of Senior English in our school, and she has earned the admiration and respect of our class by her ability and efficiency in that subject. In leaving, we wish Miss Walsh continued success in her chosen profession and hope that every happiness in life will be hers.

"She excells each mortal thing upon this dull earth dwelling."

SYLVIA A. ALTMAN

Glee Club, Hiking Club 2, Senior Show, Inter-class Dramatics 2, 4, Senior Basket Ball, Art Department of Class Book.

As an actress, as an athlete, and as a scholar, Sylvia has shown herself to be one of the best throughout her four high school years. Her fine acting was an important part of the success of several high school shows, while her brilliant playing made her the star of the Girls' Basketball team. Notwithstanding these outside interests, she has ranked consistently as one of the highest in her studies. We all feel that success will surely come to one who is so talented, and the best wishes of '26 follow her.

"The wise man understands with half a word."

RICHARD F. ATTRIDGE

"Dick"

President of Athletic Association, A. A. Dance Committee.

Dick has honored our class by his return after a few years' absence. He is the greatest man in the class for an argument, having that faculty, so necessary to debates, of never being convinced. He is always ready to give his opinion on any subject, and these opinions have proved to be concrete in foundation and substance. Dick can talk for hours on any subject and never seems to run out of subject matter and although we are forced to admit his reasoning at times is vague, he is the greatest argumentative speaker in the class.

"A maiden petite with charm so sweet."

CATHERINE M. BALL

"Kitty"

Catherine is of minimum stature, but you know the old saying, "Good things come in small packages," and we do not hesitate in saying Catherine is one of our pleasant and best natured members. Catherine has also been very perservering in regard to her school work. Altogether she is an obliging girl, likable, and one who will surely make the world "sit up and take notice." She is to enter Framingham Normal and we wish her luck there.

"The Anemone in the Garden of '26."

HAZEL E. BARDSLEY

Hiking Club 2, Secretary A. A., Junior Dance Committee, Inter-class Basketball 4, Editorial Staff, Senior Play, Minstrel Show, Junior Prom Com.

Lo! Here comes Hazel—one of the few girls whom everybody knows and likes. Hazel is one of our most popular, pleasing and prettiest girls and as for versatility—just glance above at her class and school activities—were it not for Hazel's originality and hard work our Junior Prom would not have been the success it was. She is a strong booster of the A. A. and has done more for the class and school than most of us. Hazel intends to matriculate at the Emerson College of Oratory.

"Still waters run deep."

HELEN R. BOBER

Glee Club, '26, Motto Committee, Hiking Club 2, Art Department of Class Book.

Helen entered Clinton High School, a stranger to most of us, but not for long. Soon everyone knew who that bright English scholar was. She seems quite shy and quiet but in her four years here has made many friends and would be missed if she were not around. She says she is going to be a teacher and if so, we know she will be as well liked as a teacher as she is liked by teachers and pupils now.

"I laugh, for hope hath a happy place within me."

ANNA E. BRODRICK

"Annabel"

Glee Club 4, Hiking Club 2, Inter-class Basketball 4.

Anna believes in laughing her way through life, as determined by her constantly smiling countenance. Although Anna does get a great deal of fun out of life, she also believes in the old adage, "work before pleasure," as testified by her good marks. Anna has also made herself famous by her excellent work in the girls' basketball league. Wherever she is bound she has the best wishes of 1926.

"Give me the moonlight and give me the girl."

MAURICE H. CANNON

"Mossy"

Inter-class Football 4, Inter-class Basketball 4.

Although a member of our class but a year, Maudie has certainly proved himself to be an indispensable member of the class. Maudie is a great favorite with the fairer sex, and also with the fellows as is evidenced by his great popularity. Mossy by the way is also a faithful student of the Terpsichorean art at Lyonhurst and he sure is "some strutter." His destination is unknown, but he will undoubtedly continue to maintain his popularity wherever he goes. Best of luck, Maudie.

"Activity is the road to knowledge."

SAMUEL R. CARLISLE

"Sam"

Inter-class Dramatics 2, 3, 4, Senior Show, Minstrel Show, Football 3, President of Senior Class.

Three short years ago, Sam entered our class and, indeed he has proven himself a worthy addition. Athletics, studies, dramatics, nothing daunts him. His popularity increased rapidly, and during his senior year he was elected president of '26. Socially, Sam has everybody's O. K.—for who does not enjoy his conversation, or perhaps a dance or two? Dartmouth will claim Sam; we know that he will succeed, and we all wish him luck.

"What a world of sentiment is expressed by a smile."

MARY CARR

Mary Carr is supposedly a quiet girl, but look closely and you will see a mischievous twinkle in her eyes. Mary has made many friends during her High School days among both classmates and teachers. She has prepared herself excellently for Worcester Normal—where we are sure she will succeed and we wish her the best of luck.

Not a clever speaker, but incapable of keeping silent.

ANGELA H. DESPOTOPULOS

"Angie"

Hiking Club 2.

There is not a person in the whole school who does not know Angela, and everyone who knows her has a good word to say for her. She is one of our most obliging classmates and her sunny disposition and good-nature have won her many friends. To add to this, Angela is not afraid to spend a great deal of time on her studies, and this has made her popular with her teachers as well as her classmates. We are sure that she will succeed in the future, as she has in the past.

"The world belongs to the energetic."

GEORGIANA H. DESPOTOPULOS

"Gee"

Hiking Club 2.

"G," although she is not quite so well known as her sister, Angela, is just as well liked. She is seldom seen without Angela or Alice George and these three might be called the "Three Musketeers." Georgia also studies very diligently, as is shown by her marks. She intends to go to Business School when she finishes High School, and we wish her the best of luck in her chosen profession.

"Oh! the blessed healing spell of sleep."

PAUL J. FINNERTY

"Mack"

Inter-class Football 4, Inter-class Basketball 4.

During his High School career, Paul seemed to have been able to successfully combine industry and inertia. It may seem impossible, but Paul managed to pull down the testimonials without any huge effort, even though his most difficult job in High School was trying to keep awake in French. Paul has distinguished himself in class football and basketball. His destination is Worcester Tech where we know he will succeed. Best o' luck, Paul.

"He accomplished what he tried to do."

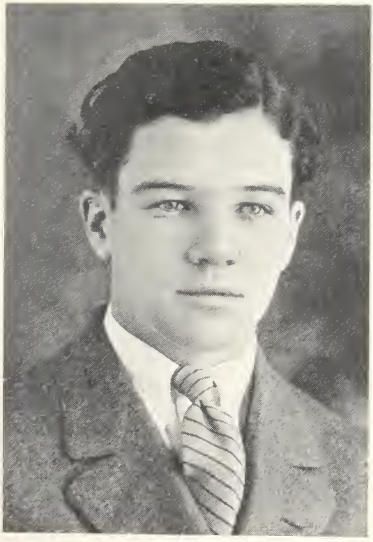
HENRY T. FLAHERTY

"Henry"

Inter-class Football 3 and 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Inter-class Baseball 4.

Henry is a very quiet chap at intervals, and at other times—well, look out—it's hard telling what he would do. Henry has devoted himself faithfully to his studies in High School [illegible] efficiency on the gridiron and basketball floor, in class athletic contests have also distinguished him. Henry's future is one that forecasts every happiness and wherever he goes, he is sure to make hosts of friends. Best o' luck, Henry, and with the best wishes of the class of '26, you are bound to succeed.

"Why hide your light under a bushel."



THOMAS FLANAGAN

"Harp"

Class Treasurer 1, 2, Inter-class Football 3, Inter-class Baseball 1, 2, Varsity Baseball 3, 4, Varsity Football 4.

Tommy entered Clinton High School a very quiet and bashful little lad. He soon made himself popular both with the faculty and students. His ready answers in class, always brief but to the point, and his general excellence in all scholastic records has made him throughout the four years, one of the highest in the class. He has also starred for two years on the baseball team. Harp has made an enviable record during his four years with us and we feel secure in wishing him the best of luck for future success.

"You know what Virgil sings, Woman is various and most mutable."

ALICE GEORGE

"Al"

Hiking Club 2, Glee Club 4.

Alice is one of the inseparable trio including Angela and Georgia and she is one of those girls about whom we can certainly speak and think with pleasant reminiscences. Although demure and modest Alice is a brilliant scholar and we congratulate her. She is going to Boston University in September and we wish her all the success in the world there and in future life.

"Praise him, for of friends he has many."

MARTIN L. GIBBONS

"Marty"

Class Treasurer 3, 4, Varsity Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity Basketball 2, 3, Inter-class Basketball 4, Track 1, 4.

We now present the class athletic star, for Marty sure has shown himself to be a veritable wonder on the gridiron, diamond, and on the basketball floor. Through his ever present good nature and wonderful personality, he has won the universal popularity of the class and school. Mart will matriculate at Holy Cross where we have no doubt he will distinguish himself because of his pluck and persistence. Good luck, Marty.

"A friend of gold to those who know her."

SARA C. GIBBONS

"Sadie"

Inter-class Basketball 4, Glee Club 4, Minstrel Show, Assistant Editor of Class Book.

Here we introduce "Sadie," the assistant editor of our class book, and who helped it along to success. Just glance at this book and you will agree with us. "Gibbie's" charming and winning personality has won her many friends. She has proven her ability in school work by her many testimonials. "Sally's" ambition leads her to the open doors of Framingham Normal. Goodbye and lots of luck; you have been a worthy classmate and a true friend.

"Fortune is ever the ally of the prudent."

RUTH M. GIBBS

"Gibsy."

Hiking Club 2, Art Department of Class Book.

When you read the above name, you have to stop and think, is Ruth in our class? Well, I guess she certainly is, but she is very, very quiet which certainly is an exception in the Class of '26. In reward for her quietness, she is awarded good marks. Ruth is fond of athletics, and in satisfying her fondness, she attends all athletic games played by C. H. S. Class of '26 will not forget you, Ruth, no matter how far away you go to complete your studies.

"Nothing is impossible to a determined will."

PAUL GOODWIN

"Fat"

President 1, 2, 3, Orchestra 1, 2, 3, Baseball Manager 3, 4, Inter-class Dramatics, Senior Play, Inter-class Football 3, 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Junior Prom Committee, Track 4.

Paul is the most versatile member of our class. He has served as class president for three years, as baseball manager and has held other offices, all denoting his great interest in school and class activities. Paul is one of the best natured fellows in the class, and has made many friends during his school life at Clinton High. Best wishes, Paul, in your chosen career (we believe Paul is to be a doctor).

"She was a phantom of delight."

FRANCES GOULD

"Fannie"

Glee Club 4, Hiking Club 2.

Fannie is one of the members of our class who fairly radiates good-nature and good humor. Her laughing presence has been a decided benefit to our class and we could not have possibly managed to go through our high school days without her. Fannie has also been very successful in her school work, and she is a true sportswoman. Frances is to matriculate at Smith at which institution we hope she will be as successful as she has been throughout her high school career.

"Genius always remains most inexplicable to itself."

VIRGINIA M. GREENWOOD

"Jeanie"

Inter-class Dramatics 3, Editorial Staff, Minstrel Show, Women's Club.

Here comes Virginia, a most studious girl if there ever was one, and she certainly shows in all her classes that her time was not spent in vain. Do you remember the day Virginia acted as teacher for one of the eighth grades? She certainly made a fine teacher. Virginia also did her part in dramatics in our Junior year. Virginia is bound for Sargent School, and she surely is the girl who sometime in the near future will be saying ATTENTION! Class of '26 will not forget you, Virginia.

"Tact and talent make a strong team."

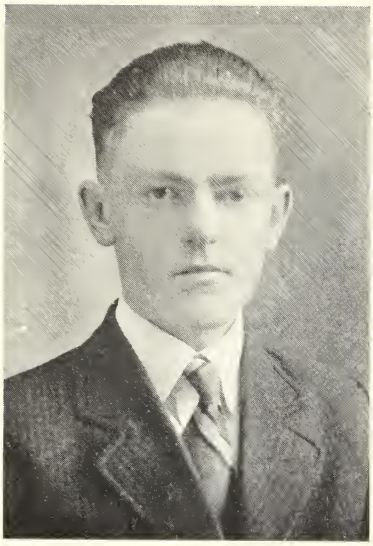
BLANCHE B. HALEY

"Bee"

Glee Club 4, Hiking Club 2, Art Department of Class Book, Writer of Class Song, Motto Committee.

We generally think of Blanche as being quiet. She may be sometimes, but when it comes to history arguments, she is right there to defend her own idea of the subject regardless of other opinions. "Bee" intends to be a nurse and we can assuredly say that she will succeed as she possesses the necessary qualifications for this vocation.

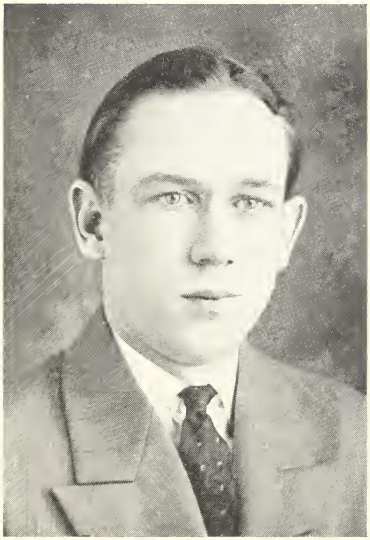
"Honest endeavor wins success."



WILLIAM G. HANNEY

William, one of the newcomers into our class, is rather modest and unassuming, but on the other hand, he is one of our most diligent and pleasant classmates, and our class has been benefited by his presence. William's destination is unknown, but we all feel that whatever higher institution of learning claims his presence, it will be very fortunate in securing a faithful. and industrious classmate Lots of luck from the class of '26.

"He lures them all, both great and small."



PATRICK J. HASTINGS

"Patsy" "Pat"

Minstrel Show

Patsy blew in on us two years ago, and it certainly was a lucky day for us when he did. Brim full of humor and wit, Pat has relieved the monotony of our history classes with his "quips and cranks." Patsy's entertaining conversation and good nature have won him also the popularity of both the fairer sex and the other. Pat's homeward progress is usually unencumbered with books, but he manages to pull through without a superabundance of our little white "greeting cards."

"Fortune has a helping hand for the daring."

MARY HEAGNEY

"Mae"

Minstrel Show, Hiking Club 2, Glee Club 4.

Mary has been in the limelight since she entered the portals of C. H. S. and she has enlarged her clientele of friends since her sojourn day. Mary puts "pep" into everything she does and is indispensable to the success of our class. As for being popular, we'll say she is and the boys literally "go wild" over Mary. And can she dance? Well, she sure can "strut her stuff," and if you haven't danced with Mary, you have certainly missed something, and we don't mean maybe. So in leaving, Mary, you carry with you our best wishes for future happiness.

"Deny his merit, if you can."

PAUL R. HERHOLZ

"Polly"

Inter-class Baseball 4, Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4.

Paul is another member of our illustrious class who is quiet in his manner. His courtesy, and willingness to do his share, have made him well liked by those who know him. Paul's perseverance and self-reliance will some day bring him to the pinnacle of success. He is to matriculate at Northeastern University and we know he will accomplish much That you be a decided success in all your work is the wish of 1926 for you—Paul.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

MARTIN F. HESTER

"Sam"

Baseball 1, 2, Football 2, 3, Track Coach 4.

Marty is one of the shining lights of our class, and is also one of the most obliging. Whenever there was any work to be done, Marty always did more than his share. Marty is very popular, and has won the admiration of the whole class, because of his many likable qualities. We all feel assured that Marty will achieve fame and success at Harvard and he carries with him the best wishes for success from the Class of '26.

"Vanity, did I ever offend thee?"

EVA E. HILLNER

"Eve"

Varsity Basketball 1, 2, Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show 4, Glee Club 4, Class Book Staff.

Eva is one of the best athletes among the girls, also one of the smallest. As a pianist, she is always in demand. She is a good sport, and always ready for a good time or a laugh especially in the study hall. As she is one of the best in the Business Section of '26, we expect to hear of her as a "private sec" before long. Poor Eva has a hard time when she is told to report after school because you see she has a job. Good excuse, isn't it? It certainly was worked considerably in typewriting!

"Beauty is a good letter of introduction."

MARY M. JOHNSTON

"Mamie"

Vice-president 1, 2, Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show, Ring Committee.

We can't imagine anyone more vivacious or more charming than Mary. She is one of the popular girls of '26, having been vice-president of our class for two years. Mamie likes to dance and others like to dance with her as is evidenced by her popularity at the Town Hall when such an affair is in progress. We think that some day we will see Mamie in a nurse's uniform, unless that temptress Fate intervenes and culminates the romance which is now so interesting. But whatever she may do or whereever she may be—good luck to you.

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

MARGARET M. KEANE

"Peggy"

Glee Club 4, Minstrel Show.

We have so much to say about Bobby that we could write for hours and still not be finished. She has made many friends by her cheerful and friendly disposition. She was often the saviour of many of her classmates who were not as lucky as she in getting their homework done. Bobby intends to be a schoolmarm. One might wonder how she will command a class but "seeing is believing" and we who have seen know that. Margie has "poise, pep and push." With these three important aids to success, how can she help but make good?

"Splendidly capable, her career awaits her."

HELEN J. KEATING

"Connie"

Inter-class Dramatics 1, 3, Senior Play, Glee Club 4, Minstrel Show, Inter-class Basketball 4, Hiking Club 2, Class Book Staff.

We have just christened Helen the nick-name "Joe" and we think it's pretty nice. Well, to say something about "Joe"—she is one of those lucky girls who can have their fun without allowing it to interfere with her school lessons. She was a joy to every teacher's heart, for she never was known to come to class unprepared. Helen has distinguished herself as an actress in our High School plays, assisting in making it possible to put them across.

"A friendly heart gets many friends."

MARY M. KELLEY

Inter-class Dramatics 2, Glee Club 4, Inter-class Baseball Team 1, Hiking Club 1, 2, Minstrel Show.

"Mary" is one of the few girls of whom it can be truthfully said, "She is at peace with the whole world." Mary has made a great many friends during her High School days and is liked by one and all. For the last two years "Mary" took six subjects instead of four. You have only to look at her marks to see that this is not impossible as most of us think. Next year Mary will enter Fitchburg Normal.

"Good nature is indeed a blessing."

FRANCIS KERRIGAN

"Hank"

Baseball 2, 3, 4.

Francis is one of the members of our class who is known and liked by all. His ability on the diamond has made the rest of us "sit up and take notice." "Hank," through his general good-nature and good humor, has made many lifetime friends at Clinton High. We wish him all the luck and every happiness in the world in his future life.

"An empty barrel makes the most noise."

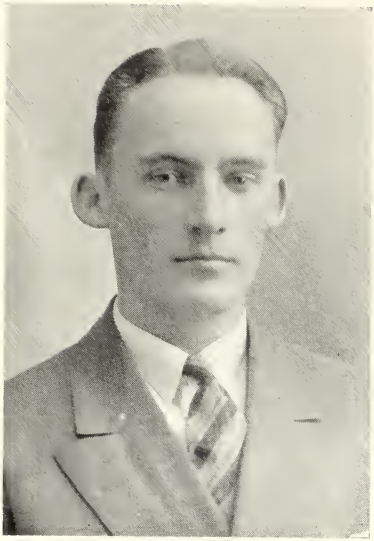
JOSEPH H. KRAFT

"Red"

Inter-class Football 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Varsity Baseball 3, 4.

"Red" is the bookkeeping shark. Like most of the other red heads, "Crafty" has a hot temper; nevertheless "Necco" cuts a mean figure with the girls. With his exceptionally "bright head" "Red" was one of the shining lights in every class-room that was honored by his presence. "Crafty" intends to enter the business world when he leaves H. S. and our best wishes for success go with him.

"A bashful man is never a brute."



ROBERT A. LAWRENCE

"Bob"

Football Manager 4, Track 4, Inter-class Football 4, Inter-class Baseball 4, Inter-class Dramatics, Senior Show, Business Manager of Class Book. Motto Committee.

Popular, brilliant, congenial and obliging,—to whom but Bob would these apply? "Brilliant" especially fits him, because he always maintained a very high standard in school work, and did he not win the Lincoln Medal in his Senior year? Dramatics and athletics also claimed their due share of his attention, and we might add—well, whatever it happened to be, he was always successful. Bob is headed for U. V. M.

"Industry is the keynote to success."

ELIN LINDSTEAD

"Linny"

Minstrel Show, Hiking Club 2.

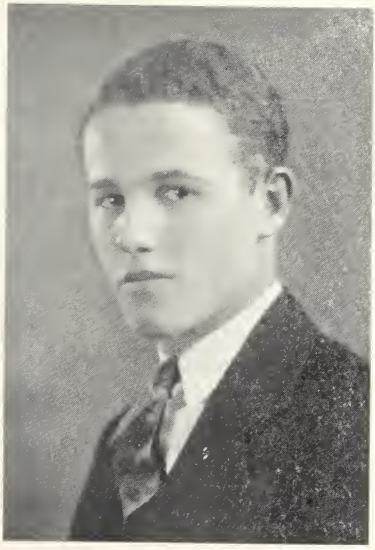
Elin is a Commercial student, and she can generally be seen carrying a Bookkeeping or Stenography book when she leaves school. Elin can certainly pound the keys on the typewriter down in Room 3, and we will probably hear of her clicking the keys in some office when she leaves C. H. S. Elin can also write wonderful "Chinese," as Stenography is often referred to. Best of luck for your unknown destination, Elin.

"Silence is deep as Eternity, speech is as shallow as time."

AMY R. LINTON

Amy is that demure, quiet girl whom we all admire but who few of us have had the advantage of really knowing. Being reserved, she attended strictly to her own affairs. Amy is very obliging and never refuses her assistance to those of us who are friendly with her. Her constant smile and pleasant disposition have made her very well liked during her school days. Amy intends to enter Framingham Normal School, and the sincerest wishes of 1926 for success and happiness accompany her.

"No where so busy a man as he there was, and yet he seemed busier than he was."



MILTON H. LONG

"Milt"

Orchestra 1, 2.

No introduction is needed to Milt, he is one of the most popular members of the class. No, I don't think he owes his popularity to that Dodge coupe as you probably thought right off. Take a good look at Milt's pretty wavy hair. It is always combed to perfection. We don't wonder he is such a favorite with the girls. Milt is no mental genius, but he always managed to get by in his subjects with a few points to spare. Milt is planning to go to Worcester Academy. We know you will live up to your classmates' expectations, Milt.

"Each mind has its own method."

GRACE T. LYNCH

"Teddie"

Inter-class Basketball 4, Glee Club 4, Minstrel Show, Hiking Club 1, 2, Inter-class Dramatics 4.

Grace is one of the most obliging girls in our class. She refuses no one —not even the teachers. "Teddie" attends the school games very frequently—we wonder why? Of course, there must be an attraction, but no matter how hard we try, we cannot find out what it is. Can you? "Gracie" intends to be a teacher; we know she will succeed as she has succeeded in all her undertakings.

"With tears and laughter for all time."

GEORGE MacPHERSON

"Mac"

Football 2, 3, and 4, Basketball 2, 3, Inter-class Basketball 4, Inter-class Baseball 4.

George is a quiet fellow and like most quiet persons, "he had the goods." In both athletics and scholarship, "Mac" was superior. His football and basketball record read like those of a professional. His scholastic standing is of the highest. "Mac" will continue his studies at Brown University. Some day, we hope to see "Mac's" name on the front pages of the newspapers as one of the leading men of his time.

"The most reasoning characters are often the easiest abashed."

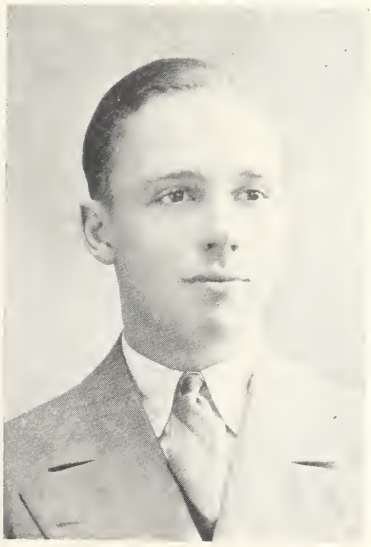
JOHN J. MAHAN

"Cliquot"

Inter-class Football 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Minstrel Show, Class Book Committee, Inter-class Baseball 4, Track 4.

John joined our ranks in his Junior year, and since then, he has become one of the shining stars of the class. His ability as a scholar has made us "sit up and take notice." Getting testimonials was no thrill to John for it was a common occurrence in his High School career. John showed us what he could do in athletics by winning his class numerals in football, and by playing in the inter-class basketball team. He is undecided as to his destination next year.

"Trust him not who seems like a saint."



McGREGOR MAITLAND

"Greg"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, Inter-class Dramatics 1, 3, Inter-class Football 3, Inter-class Basketball 4, Inter-class Baseball 4, Senior Show, Football 4.

"Aw-gee, who's got an extra pencil?" Did you ever see "Greg" when he wasn't looking for something? Mac likes to argue and often can be heard trying to convince some one that he's right and it's the world that's wrong. If you want to hear "Greg" argue, drop in at the Bazaar some night and listen to the debates on the topics of the day. "Greg" stepped out in his Senior year and could often be seen walking home from Woolworth's with?? Guess.

"Jolly as the day is long."

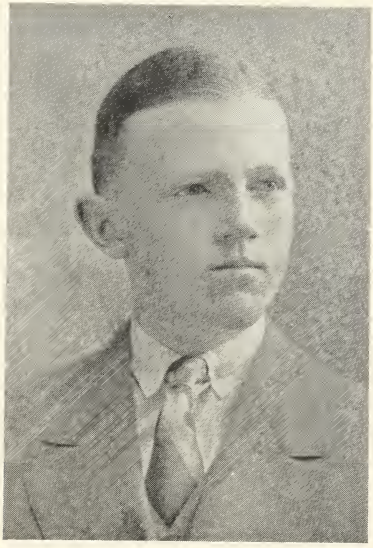
MARY C. MANGAN

"Mamie"

Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show, Glee Club 4.

"Mamie" is well liked by all her classmates because of her pleasing disposition. She is an all around good sport and a constant attendant at all the games of C. H. S. Perhaps there is a reason. And she is often seen at our school socials enjoying herself with ——— well, draw your own conclusions. "Mamie" is going to be a teacher; best of luck to you.

"He who speaks little knows much."



GEORGE D. MANTER

Inter-class football 3, 4, Inter-class Basketball 4.

George is one of the most quiet, studious members of our class. Although he is very quiet he has a winning personality, and is a friend to all. George is somewhat bashful and is not very strong on the weaker sex, but when it comes to Trig. or Solid, George is right there ready to explain the Knottiest of Knotty problems. George is bound for M. I. T., and his success there is taken for granted by his classmates.

"She knew she was by him beloved."

FLORENCE F. MATTISON

"Flossie"

Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show.

"Flo" is one of the tallest members of our class with an especially "bright" head. We often wonder why we cannot succeed in getting "Flo" on the phone, the line is generally very busy——and we all wonder why??? "Flossie" is always seen at our High School games and dances. It just couldn't be O. K. without "FLO."

"To great men the Gods give great things."

WILLIAM H. MILL

"Bill"

Orchestras 1, 2, 3, 4, Junior Dance Committee, Junior Prom Committee, Editor-in-chief of Class Book, Minstrel Show, Inter-class Football 3 and 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Manager-elect Basketball 4, Inter-class Baseball 4.

We congratulate Billy; he has made a great success of his H. S. days. He has successfully combined social activity and study, striking an even balance and finding equal popularity with teachers and classmates. As Editor-in-chief of our class book, we will not soon forget his conscientious work. Billy also found time for athletics, winning his numerals in football during his senior year.

"Good nature, what a blessing."

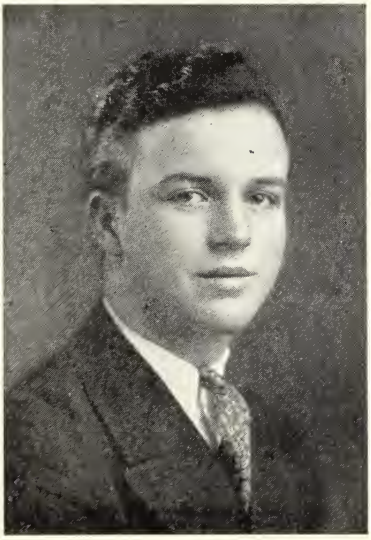
MARY A. MOSHER

"Mae"

Hiking Club 2.

Mary is one of our carefree, happy-go-lucky classmates, who is always welcome in class because of her cheerful personality. Mary is also very greatly interested in class activities, and is an inveterate athletic fan. One of Mary's distinguishing characteristics is her good nature which is present at all times and places. It is a rocky road to success, and there are many who stumble, but we have no doubt Mary will achieve great success in her chosen vocation. Loads of luck.

"To the good looking belong the girls."



THOMAS A. McDONALD

"Chick"

Inter-class Dramatics 2, Senior Play, Junior Dance Committee, Minstrel Show, Football 3, Inter-class Football 3 and 4.

"Chic" is one of the easy going members of the class, but he is one of the best assets this class has, and surely no one could find a truer and better classmate. The girls have also appreciated his charm, and his dramatic ability is well known. "Chic's" destination is unknown, but wherever he goes, he can feel assured that he carries the best wishes of the Class of 1926 with him.

"Friends he has many, foes has he any?"

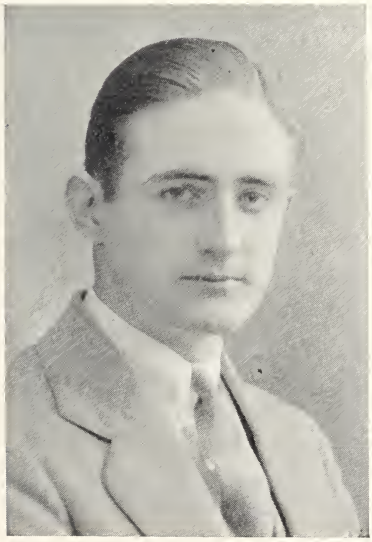
WILLIAM J. McGRAIL

"Bill"

Inter-class Football 3 and 4.

Since "Bill" has been enrolled in the ranks of the Class of 1926, he has been very active and has given a good account of himself in everything he has attempted. "Bill" has also been unable to resist the charms of the fairer sex. Best of luck, "Bill;" there's a great future ahead of you, and may you have the greatest of success in all your undertakings.

"Always ready, always there, always ready to do his share."



JOSEPH McNAMARA

"Joe"

Baseball 4, Inter-class Football 3 and 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Minstrel Show, Track 1 and 4.

"Joe" is one of the more modest fellows of the class, but he is always "there" when there is anything to be done. "Mac" has also distinguished himself in class athletic contests and has shown great "stick-to-itiveness" in the class room. Good classmates are plenty, but the combination of a good classmate and a loyal worker is especially admirable. "Joe" will completes his education at Holy Cross. Best wishes, "Joe," and the greatest of success in your chosen career.

"Quick to learn, and wise to know."

JOHN W. MacNAMARA

"Long John"

Class Football 3 and 4, Class Basketball 4, Minstrel Show, Track Team 4.

Unlike his namesake, Joe, "Long John" is very bashful—yet—altnough he doesn't seem to pay any attention to the girls, you'd be surprised. The only subjects John seemed to worry about were Latin and French. He could be found nearly every afternoon before class doing his Latin with Joe and Bertha. John plans to enter Holy Cross, in the fall, and we expect great things from him.

"I am part of all that I have met."

LEO McNAMARA

"Bart"

Inter-class Football 3 and 4, Football 4, Baseball 4, Inter-class Basketball 4.

"Bart" is that earnest little chap who can smile so well and so easily. From the scholastic point of view, Bartly is a good fellow and he goes at his studies with that vigorous manner that never fails. Leo took quite a part in inter-class athletics. Bartly intends to enter business school, and if he sticks to the ambition he has shown in C. H. S., we will not be surprised when we hear that he is an outstanding figure in the business world.

"Whose yesterday's look backward with a smile."

LILLIAN A. MUNSTER

"Lill"

Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show.

Although upon first appearance Lillian seems to be a quiet girl, when you get to know her, you realize the mistake your made. She is well liked by her classmates and her many friends. She very seldom worries, especially about lessons; nevertheless, she always passes. Lillian is going to matriculate at Bryant & Stratton's and we feel that she will bring nothing but glory to our class, while she sojourns there. Lots of luck, "Lil"——

"Smile and drive the clouds away."

FRANCIS J. NEEDHAM

"Needo"

Inter-class Baseball 4, Inter-class Basketball 4, Inter-class Football 3 and 4, Minstrel Show, Inter-class Baseball 4.

The success of our class could not have been secured without the smiling and friendly presence of "Needo." He has sure been one of the most pleasant and cheerful members of the class. Not only has "Needo" been well liked by his classmates, but he has been also very much esteemed by most of the teachers. We could not have sailed our ship without him. His future career is unknown, but whatever higher institution of learning claims the honor of his presence will find him a jolly good fellow."

"Go put your creed into your deed."

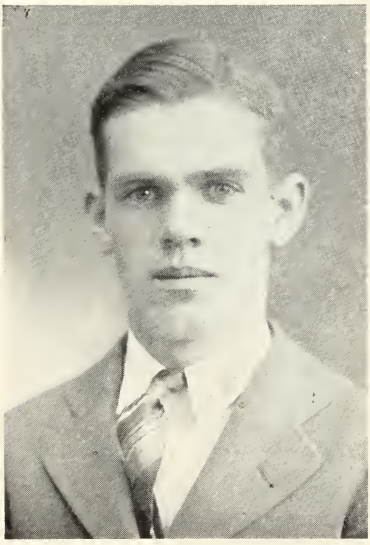
ALICE O'DONNELL

"Chippie"

Hiking Club 2, Glee Club 4, Inter-class Dramatics 2, Junior Prom Committee, Junior Dance Committee, Minstrel Show, Vice-president 3, 4.

Alice portrays the essence of "flapperism" and the man who introduced the word "flapper" into the English language must have had Alice in mind. Alice is one of the most popular girls in the class and has taken great interest in all class activities; Alice, by the way, takes in all the dances in town and out, and she sure is a "sweet dancer." Also "Chippie" takes great interest in private parties and her attendance is habitually and universally desired.

"Good humor is the health of the soul."



CHARLES LEO O'DONNELL

"Leo" "Lad"

Minstrel Show, Inter-class Baseball 4.

Evidently "Lad" believes in the above, for he is certainly good-humored, and we are glad of the fact because he has sure brightened up our deep and weighty subjects with his subtle humor and "wise oracles." "Leo" is one of our popular young men, and his one weakness is for the girls. The class as a whole, feel that "Lad" will some day bring fame to '26. Anyhow, we will always remember you, Leo, and wish you success in future life and in your undertakings at the University of Michigan.

"A smile for all, a welcome glad. A jovial coaxing way she had."

CATHERINE O'MALLEY

"Kitty"

Hiking Club 1, 2, Glee Club 4, Minstrel Show, Basketball Team 1.

Catherine is one of those people who take life easy and never worries. When you are with Catherine, you never need to worry about supplying conversation, because she always seems to have something to talk about. Catherine is also athletically inclined, being a member of the Basketball team and Hiking club. She intends to become a school teacher and we are sure she will succeed in her chosen profession.

"None but himself can be his parallel."

FRANCIS J. O'MALLEY

"Butch"

Class Book Staff, Senior Show, Inter-class Football 4, Inter-class Basketball 4.

From a bashful freshman to a senior dignified or otherwise—mostly otherwise, has Francis emerged. His original wit has afforded numerous laughter during an otherwise monotonous class. Do not think though that that is the only thing for which we will remember him. Not at all, for "Butch" is one of the most obliging chaps in our class—to whom else would one go for help in any sub-subject? "Butch's" nonchalance in the senior play won for him many feminine admirers.

"Happiness is the by-product of living."

MOLLIE E. O'TOOLE

Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show.

Who would think Mollie a Senior? Maybe she has the dignified air, but we seldom notice it. She may be small, but we all know that nice things come in small packages. Mollie certainly has ability plus—this is very noticeable when the testimonials come out. Mollie intends to be a dress designer—we know she'll succeed for who hasn't envied her stunning frocks. She is another of the lucky girls who can say "Which one shall I wear?" while the rest of us unfortunates are pondering what we will wear. Good luck, Mollie.

"The better we know her, the better we like her."

CECILIA RANIERI

"Silvia"

Glee Club 4, Hiking Club 2, Minstrel Show.

"Silvia's" ready smile and good nature have won many friends during her H. S. days. Not many of us can say that we really know Cecilia, but our fleeting glimpses make us realize that we have missed something. Cecilia has been a faithful student, and seems to have sailed through life on a "sea of Calm." We hope that her life in the future will be as pleasant and easy.

"What fairy-like music steals o'er the sea,
Entrancing our senses with chanced melody."

HELEN RUANE

"Rainie"

Orchestra 4, Minstrel Show, Hiking Club 2, Glee Club 4, Gymnastic Exhibition 4.

Could we ever imagine Helen worrying over lessons. She takes them as they come and gets there regardless of her carefree disposition. She is the personification of that slang expression, "Take it easy." Helen's talent as a pianist has made her an indispensible asset to all social gatherings. Because of her ability as a piano player, she has won herself a place in our orchestra and has also played for us at our graduation. "Rainie" will matriculate at New England Conservatory. Best of luck, "Rainie."

"She is a woman; if you be more, you're none."

AGNES SALMON

Hiking Club 2.

One of our nicest, best liked and most obliging girls—is Agnes. She has also managed to get through her high school days without a superabundance of "demerits" and we feel that Agnes through her excellent qualities will one day bring honor to our class. She has decided to enter Normal School next year and we know that there will be no one any more successful in the work of teaching than Agnes. Lots of luck.

" 'Tis the mind that makes the body rich."

BERTHA H. STEARNS

"Bert"

Representative to Women's Club.

In introducing Bertha, we may say that "true wit is but a spangle glistening against the rich material which provides its mental background," for Bertha is one of the scholastic "stars" of our class, and she is one of those of whose ability we are most proud. But because we say Bertha's school work is outstanding, don't get the impression that Bertha is a "bookworn" or a "grind." No such thing. She is everything but. Bertha has also been very obliging and has always been "right there" when there was anything to be done. She is bound for Smith, where she will continue her brilliant work.

"Turn your tongue seven times before speaking."

EMMA TAUBNER

"Tubber" "Tubby"

If Emma were still a child, we fear that she would be reminded of the fact that "Children should be seen and not heard," but since she has outgrown that stage, she no longer comes under that rule. But all this does not prevent Emma from getting good marks. She is quite a champion at getting trial balances to come out just right. Emma intends to go into the business world when she finishes high school, and we wish her the best of luck.

"Go in peace, may luck attend you."

IRENE TIERNEY

"Renee"

Junior Prom Committee, Junior Dance Committee, Minstrel Show, Glee Club 4, Hiking Club 2, Assistant Business Manager of Class Book.

We all know of the slogan, "laugh and the world laughs with you," and we all know that Irene believes it—which is enough said. Books never bother Irene, and the contents less. Perhaps that accounts for the delightful combination of dimples and twinkles which at a party or a ball seem to mean something, and that's not all. "Rene's" not a fatalist, and so what's coming isn't worrying her, but whatever or wherever she may be—the best of luck!

"Happy am I, from care I'm free,
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

LILLIAN VATTES

"Lil" "Lilly"

Hiking Club 2.

Lillian is one of our very quiet girls, but her quiet ways have won her many friends. She is an obliging classmate and well liked by all. One would imagine that her association with Emma would have had a bad influence on her quiet ways, but no, Lillian has stuck to her quietness, and Emma has to make noise enough for both. We do not know what Lillian plans to do, but we wish her the best of luck.

"Novelty is lovely."

CECELIA E. WARD

"Celia"

Sec. 3-4, Junior Dance Committee, Prom Committee, Minstrel Show, Orchestra 4, Glee Club 4, Class Book Staff.

"Celia" is one of our happy-go-lucky individuals with hardly a care in the world. Whoever saw "Celia" without a smile? A popular girl is our class secretary—popular with teachers and classmates, for "Celia" has a high scholastic standing. Her work on the various committees on which she has served has been conscientious, and we are sure that her future career will be as successful as her school days have been.

"She was of spirits gay and light of heart."

MARY B. WALSH

"Mae"

Inter-class Basketball Team 4, Glee Club 4, Gym Pageant 3, Minstrel Show 4, Tea Dance Committee 4, Hiking Club 2, Gymnastic Exhibition.

Truly it can be said of "Babs" that she was loved by all. Because of her unfailing good nature and her excessive wit in classes she was always a joyful asset to a gathering. "Wallie" did not allow outside pleasures to interfere with her school work for she always found time to prepare her homework. "Mae" is another one of us who intends to be a schoolmarm. She will prepare herself at Fitchburg Normal.

"She entwines and weaves the roses of heaven into the life we live on earth."

ALICE WILLIAMSON

"Al" "Allie" "Billie"

Secretary of Class 1, 2, Vice-president of A. A. 3, 4, Junior Dance Committee, Junior Prom Committee, Secretary of Hiking Club 1, Dramatics 1, 2, 3, 4, Senior Play, Minstrel Show, Cheer Leader.

Alice has taken an active part in school activities—just glance at the list. She has successfully played the leading lady in all our plays as well as in the social affairs at school. Billie's twinkling eyes and mischievous smile have played havoc among the boys, while her resourcefulness and reliance have proven her a regular friend. We are thankful to fate for favoring us with such a classmate as "Al."

CLASS

HISTORY

CLASS HISTORY.

FRESHMEN YEAR.

In September, 1922, our class entered High School as freshmen. We encountered many unforseen difficulties, and made the mistakes typical of freshmen. We were ridiculed by the other classes, but gradually we regained our composure.

After a few months, we realized the necessity of class officers and a class meeting was held at which we elected Walter Burke, president; Mary Johnston, vice-president; Alice Williamson, secretary; Thomas Flanagan, treasurer. Shortly after Easter, we made our debut (as actors and actresses) in the annual Inter-class Dramatic contest. The play which we presented was "Peter," and the cast deserved much credit.

Our class picnic was the social event of the year. It was held at Whalom and Miss Gibbons acted as chaperon. We all had a very enjoyable time and it was with heavy hearts we separated for two months. But these two months passed quickly and soon we found ourselves,—

SOPHOMORES.

This year it was our turn to ridicule the incoming freshmen.

We held an election which resulted in the choosing of Paul Goodwin, president; the other officers remained unchanged. Shortly after this, a class meeting was called and we selected our class colors:—blue and silver. A committee was appointed and rings were selected. The one we chose had the insignia, C. H. S. 1926, in shield form. We were the first class to have silver rings, although some preferred to have the design made up in gold.

This year, we had a hiking club and both girls and boys played an important part in athletics.

When Easter week arrived, we again showed our ability as actors and actresses in the Inter-class Dramatics, our play being "A String of Pearls."

The last social event of the year was our class picnic which again took place at Whalom. We were chaperoned by Miss Kerrigan and we all enjoyed it very much. We then parted for two short vacation months after which we found ourselves,—

JUNIORS.

As Juniors we did not deign to even bother with the freshmen. We held our class election and the returns showed that we had elected Paul Goodwin, president; Alice O'Donnell, vice-president; Cecelia Ward, secretary, and Martin Gibbons, treasurer. As Juniors we took our stand in the social world and felt that we were capable of running a dance unassisted. The dance was held in Pierce hall, November 21st. The committee in charge "put it over very well." Socially it was a great success and we netted a large sum from this dance, which was the beginning of our class treasury.

Shortly after the spring vacation, the annual inter-class dramatics took place. Our play, "Mothers on Strike," was excellently presented and the participants deserve much credit.

The Prom, always a major event in the school social calendar, will long be remembered as the most successful farewell party ever given to a graduating class. The committee in charge was: Alice O'Donnell, Irene Tierney, Hazel Bardsley, Alice Williamson, Cecelia Ward, Paul Goodwin, William Mill and Martin Gibbons.

Our teachers were kind enough to act as chaperons and music was furnished by Bowser's Orchestra. Spot lights, dancing, novelties, such as caps, serpentines and confetti, all contributed to the brilliance of its success. Besides this, it reimbursed our treasury with a considerable amount.

After our annual picnic at which was the usual enjoyable time, we parted to enjoy the summer vacation which was to carry us into our—

SENIOR YEAR.

We entered our Senior year with grave responsibilities and a position of authority and importance.

With a slight change in officers, Samuel Carlisle having been elected president, we began the last year of our happy High School life.

This year, we had a class football team for the boys and basketball team for both girls and boys. Many inter-class games were played and our teams won many times.

The Senior show, which was held shortly after Christmas, was very well presented and was very successful, not only socially but also financially.

After Easter, the class talents again asserted themselves on the Inter-class Dramatic competition, our play being "Evening Dress Indispensable," coming a very close second.

After this we were very busy preparing for graduation. The last few weeks were filled with social activities including Class Day, Banquet, Prom, Baccalaureate and finally Graduation.

It was not until we had received our diplomas and being congratulated by our friends that the full significance of the word, "graduation," dawned upon us. It was thus that we realized that we were no longer students of the Clinton High School. All the pleasant memories of happy, care-free school days came back to us and it was with heavy hearts that we bid our teachers and classmates—Farewell.

"PETER"

"PETER."

Jenny	Alice Williamson
Miss Eastman	Helen Keating
Charlie	McGregor Maitland

Charles, an experienced thief, attempts to rob Miss Eastman's house, but is apprehended by Jenny. At first, she is quite hostile to him, and even goes so far as to make him call the police. Then, while waiting for the arrival of the police, she learns that he has only stolen her aunt's pet Angora, "Peter," whereas she suspected him of looting the house of many valuables. As she disliked "Peter" and is glad to think that he will be taken away, Jenny very much approves of his plan to sell him.

But fate interfered. Their loud talking aroused Jenny's aunt, Miss Eastman. She came downstairs and to her surprise meets a very untidy, uncouth young man. She disapproves of this late caller until he tells her he is a cat specialist, and has a beautiful Angora cat, which looks just like her "Peter," and which he is very anxious to sell. She agrees to buy the cat so that he may be a companion for "Peter."

Charles quickly makes his exit and then, to her great disappointment, Miss Eastman is informed that Charlie was a thief, and that she had bought her own cat, "Peter."

"A STRING OF PEARLS"

A STRING OF PEARLS.

Mr. Madison	Thomas McDonald
Miss Plicope Madison	Mary Kelly
Ethel Madison	Alice O'Donnell
Peggy Madison	Alice Williamson
Hannah	Sylvia Altman
Mr. Anthony Augustus Waterbury	Samuel Carlisle

Mr. Waterbury is to take Ethel to a dance which is being given in honor of Anita, for whom Ethel is to be the maid-of-honor and Mr. Waterbury the best man.

But the Madison family does not employ a maid, and who shall admit Mr. Waterbury when he calls for Ethel, is the very difficult problem that must be solved. Peggy listens to Ethel's various ideas about the problem and finally offers her services as "French maid" on condition that Ethel give her her pearl necklace. It is agreed, and all await Mr. Waterbury's arrival.

When he arrives, Peggy admits him. She then goes to see if Ethel has placed the pearls upon her bureau, but her trip was in vain. She decided to wait and give Ethel a little more time.

While Mr. Waterbury and Ethel are waiting for the return of the chauffeur, Peggy thinks that she will not receive the much envied pearls and she "spills the beans." She tells him that she is not Suzette, the maid; on the contrary, she is Ethel's younger sister. Mr. Waterbury is quite surprised as he had never suspected that Peggy was anything but a maid. He then gives her a string of pearls that greatly out-values Ethel's pearls. He forgives Ethel for trying to be deceitful, and all are made quite happy.

"MOTHERS ON STRIKE"

"MOTHERS ON STRIKE."

Mrs. Stanton	Virginia Greenwood
Mrs. Warren	Helen Keating
Bob Stanton, Jr.	McGregor Maitland
Ruth Stanton	Alice Williamson
Robert Stanton, Sr.	Samuel Carlisle
John Warren	Paul Goodwin

In trying to make their husbands and children realize how careless and selfish they are, Mrs. Stanton and Mrs. Warren decide to strike and let their families know that they are human beings and not housekeeping machines. This strike seemed to be quite easy to carry out, but proved to be rather difficult, although by the determination and pluck of Mrs. Stanton, the strike is effectively completed. Each member of both families sees that he has thought of no one but himself. To prove their appreciation for the "striking" Mothers, John Warren and the Stanton family make a resolution to show that they can and will do their utmost to make the household duties as light as possible.

"TOMMY'S BRIDES."

Howard Whitney-Steele	Robert Lawrence
William Whitney-Steele	Samuel Carlisle
Thomas Jones	Thomas McDonald
Wiggins	Paul Goodwin
Happy Halloran	McGregor Maitland
Paul Haywood	Francis O'Malley
Mrs. Howard Whitney-Steele	Sylvia Altman
Letha Whitney-Steele	Hazel Bardsley
Mary Brooks	Helen Keating
Athalie Fouquet	Alice Williamson

Thomas Jones, a World War veteran and Buddy of Billy Whitney-Steele, whose life he saved while in France, is to be married at the Whitney-Steele home. He is anxiously awaiting the arrival of his bride-to-be, Althalie Fouquet, who is coming from France. Letha Whitney-Steele vainly opposes this wedding. On one of his attempts to learn of the docking of the "Leviathan," Tom accidentally meets Mary Brooks, his pre-war sweetheart, who is working as maid in the Whitney-Steele home.. Tommy tells her that he is to marry a French girl as he believed Mary Brooks was married. Mary contradicts this statement, and tries to make him remember the days before the war.

Meanwhile Athalie arrives and falls in love with Billy Whitney-Steele. She delays the wedding for a week, during which time Mary meets Tom and tries to persuade him to tell Athalie that he does not love her. He agrees to do it but when the time comes he cannot. When Mary finds that he is not man enough to tell her, she decides to settle the question by shooting Athalie. Her shot went wild, and in the few exciting moments that follow it is learned that Athalie really loves Billy, and Mary wins her Tommy.

"EVENING DRESS INDISPENSABLE"

EVENING DRESS INDISPENSABLE.

Alice Waybury	Sylvia Altman
George Connaught	Samuel Carlisle
Geoffry Chandler	Robert Lawrence
Nellie	Grace Lynch
Shiela Waybury	Alice Williamson

Shiela, a young girl of twenty-two, suddenly decides that she will study art, saying that she wishes to employ her youth to better purpose than captivating young men's hearts.

When Mr. Connaught, a friend of the Waybury family, returns from abroad and finds how changed Shiela is, he is very much surprised. He urges Geoffry Chandler, who loves Shiela, to force her to go to the theater with him, and to take her to a dinner and make her dance afterward. Geoffry tries to carry out this plan, but Shiela refuses to be ordered about, and so, rather than have Geoffry disappointed Alice, Shiela's mother, says she will go with him. This, of course, produces a great commotion, but Alice Waybury does not let that interfere with her plans.

When she returns to the room she is beautifully dressed, and Geoffry is more than willing to accompany her instead of Shiela. But George Connaught says he will not allow Mr. Chandler to take Alice. He demands the theater tickets from Geoffry, who refuses to comply with his wish and who calmly awaits the results.

Shiela, through jealousy and fear of losing Geoffry, gives up her hideous manner of dressing and once more returns to her former mode. When Geoffry sees how prettily she is clothed, he decides that Shiela is really the one with whom he wishes to spend the evening. He gives the theater tickets to George, and spends the remainder of the evening with Shiela.

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

VARSITY FOOTBALL.

The first game was with Worcester Classical High School. Outweighed, as in most of its games, Clinton got the jump on Worcester team, scored a touchdown in the early stages of the game, and managed to hold their opponents for the remainder, winning by the score of 6-0.

The following Saturday, Westboro provided little opposition. Clinton's fast backfield ran riot and piled up a score of 45-0.

The Hudson game was forfeited to Clinton after some disagreement, but not before Clinton had a chance to show the superiority, for in the second quarter, we were leading by two touchdowns.

A beautiful forward pass for a touchdown won the St. John's game. The much lighter Clinton team put up a courageous fight and clearly outplayed their opponents, winning 6-0.

Clinton slumped badly the next Saturday, and was defeated 27-0 by Maynard High. The team was badly off form and was without the services of several of the regulars. This was the only defeat suffered throughout the season.

Outweighed by nearly twenty pounds per man, Clinton fought Northbridge to a scoreless tie. We shall never forget the splendid last stand, that Clinton made on their one yard line against the crushing attacks of the Northbridge backs. Clinton showed their courage and gameness at every point of this bitterly fought contest.

Clinton reached the peak of her form in the next game, and swamped her chief rival, Gardner, by 27-0, showing the only consistent attack throughout the season. They completely outplayed Gardner. This was the biggest game of the season and the showing of the team stamps it as one of the best in the history of the high school.

The season ended with a 6-6 tie with Milford on Thanksgiving Day. Clinton, sure of a victory, started with a rush, played their opponents off their feet, and had the best of it for the greater part of the game. However, a bad slump in the last period allowed Milford to come from behind to tie the score.

The team:—

ENDS—LONG, McPHERSON, O'MALLEY, FLANAGAN, McNAMARA.
TACKLES—BURKE, IRVINE, GOSS, O'TOOLE, SCHUSTA.
GUARDS—CONNELLY, SCHAVINA, GOODWIN, CHILD.
CENTERS—O'CONNELL, MAITLAND.

INTERCLASS FOOTBALL TEAM

INTER-CLASS FOOTBALL.

The Senior team, under the supervision of R. F. Dyer, won the Inter-class championship by two clean cut victories over the most formidable rivals, the Juniors.

The Seniors entered the first game without any practice and had to rely mainly on individual effort. The game was very close, but the superior offensive tactics of the Seniors finally won for them by the score of seven to six.

The second game found the Seniors a much improved team, and consequently they won easily by the score of thirteen to six. The effective criss-cross play which had been developed by Coach McGrail, and proved the Waterloo of the other classes, was easily smothered by the Seniors.

The team was given numerals at the close of the season, emblematic of the Inter-class championship.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL TEAM

INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL

Owing to the lack of proper gymnasium space, Clinton High had no varsity basketball team this season. In its place there was formed, under the supervision of Mr. Dyer, an Inter-class league. The Seniors were coached by Mr. Dyer; the Juniors by Mr. McGrail, and the lower classes by George McPherson and William McMahon.

In the first league the Juniors were successful, defeating the Seniors twice, each time by two points. The Seniors' strength lay in a wonderful offensive and their weakness, the poorest of defense. In the second league, the race was far more thrilling. Although the Juniors won, it was the belief of the majority that the Seniors had the better team. The Juniors won the first and third games by scores of 15-10 and 11-10. The Seniors won the second by a score of 19-7. The Seniors were the best combination in either league in their passwork, but a tendency to overdo it, coupled with poor eyes for the basket, led to their final defeat. The games with lower classes were unimportant, in most cases high scores were run up by the upper classmen. The highest score of the year, 102 points, was the record of the Seniors' first team.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL TEAM (GIRLS)

INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL—GIRLS.

Supervised and coached by Miss Gibbons, Gym teacher, the girls of the four classes formed basketball teams and played a series of inter-class games.

Interest in these games was shown by classmates, and at each game there was a capacity audience.

Each team played well, and the girls deserved praise, but the Junior team took the championship.

At the close of the series the combined teams ran a Tea Dance in order to earn money for the numerals which they were awarded.

Senior lineup was as follows:—

SARAH GIBBONS, r. g.
MARY WALSH, l. g.
HAZEL BARDSLEY, c. (Capt.)

CLASS SONG.

Tune: "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Classmates, we gather this Commencement Day,
Sadly we face the thoughts of parting way.
We of twenty-six, to you dear Clinton High,
Fond farewells bid you as we say, "Good-Bye."
We'll return no more to halls we love so well.
Farewell, Clinton High School, fare thee well.

Now as we journey from our carefree ways,
New duties take the place of High School days.
Some of our classmates on life's highways will roam,
Others the byways will claim for their own.
Though the future calls us, with lure of gold and fame.
Never will we forget, "To Serve Is Our Aim."

Chorus.

We shall work for honor, Alma Mater, dear,
We shall cherish memories
Of our friendships here.
May we tread life's highways,
By the Golden Rule,
With you to light our future,
Clinton High School, Oh! Clinton High School.

By Blanche B. Haley.

CLASS PROPHECY.

By Miss Hazel Bardsley and Miss Helen Keating.

Station C. H. S. broadcasting from Clinton, Mass., June 22, 1936. The program this evening will be a resume of the vocations followed by each member of the class of 1926.

Please stand by:—

Sam Carlisle, popular president of '26, is now a very successful doctor. He has replaced the famous Mayo brothers, taking over their hospital.

Alice O'Donnell and Mary Heagney, pals during high school days, are now renowned as Follies Girls and their names are flashed among the celebrities of "The Great White Way."

An athletic coach is Marty Gibbons, versatile player in his H. S. days. His work with a famous "prep" school team is unsurpassed.

Celia Ward now has a special counter in Brockelman Bros. store in Clinton, selling Joy-water, a patent medicine which is a quick and sure cure for blues.

Billy Mill, editor of Memorabilia XIII, has continued his interest in jounalism, and is successfully editing the "Clinton Daily Item," which now has 35 pages.

We remember Sadie Gibbons as assistant editor of the class book and a very good student. Under her supervision little tots are learning to distinguish right from wrong.

His fluent powers of expression, his extensive study and travels abroad have made Robert Lawrence an interesting lecturer of international repute.

A romance of H. S. days has recently culminated in the marriage of Irene Tierney and McGregor Maitland. "Greg" is continuing the occupation of former days, and has gained fame as a "soda jerker."

In the recent Book Review, prominent among those having received commendable criticism is Francis O'Malley, whom we remember as co-editor of Memorabilia. His latest book is entitled, "The Last Man on Earth."

Virginia Greenwood, an honor student of '26, has earned a name in the literary world as an inexorable critic of non-fiction works.

The world's record for auto-speed has just been broken by John Mahan. De Paolo, the speed demon of former times, was far out-distanced by Mahan's record.

Few have succumbed to illness under the tender nursing of Alice Williamson, but, in recent society news, we have read that one has succumbed to her charms.

The sagacity of youth plus his ability to control men has made of Milton Long a great Wall Street broker.

The dream of his youth has been realized by the bequest of one million dollars to Dick Attridge. He now winters on the Riviera and travels when and where he pleases.

Suzzane Lenglen has at last met her fate in Grace Lynch, who is now world's champ in tennis. Grace will play in England and compete this summer for the Wimbledon Cup.

Over the radio wires you have often heard the Boston Symphony Orchestra, directed by Helen Ruane. This orchestra has gained much recognition and is assisted by artists who were also former classmates.

John McNamara, pianist of great repute, has brought fame to Harbor Street in his own town.

As a rival of Fritz Kreisler, Paul Herholz's violin selections have received much comment.

The writer of the words for the class song of '26, Blanche Haley, has turned her talent in that direction and has recently published a book of lyric verse which holds for us memories of other days.

"Michigan or bust" is the slogan of Patsy Hastings, and Leo O'Donnell has materialized in that Patsy is now president of the University of Michigan and Leo is assisting him in his numerous duties.

Have you been to Duck Inn? Well, you're missing something, for there we find our vivacious Flossie Mattison successfully managing her Tea Room.

The only one in a position to look down upon his former classmates is Francis Needham, who is an aviator conducting an air line from Clinton to Bolton.

Mary Mosher probably makes more money than any other member of our class, being employed by the government in the U. S. Mint.

Paul Goodwin, who entered the regular army soon after graduation, has attained rank and dignity of general. We shall expect wise leadership from him in the future.

Molly O'Toole's "Modiste Shop" on 5th Avenue, New York City, has created quite a sensation. Her living models, Catherine O'Malley and Helen Bober, display her fascinating creations.

Over the radio tomorrow evening you will hear Amy Linton, a successful missionary from China, speaking on the topic, "The Great Need of Arch Preserver Shoes in China."

Chic McDonald, a poultry man, has a scientific method for raising chickens without the expense of feeding them. His sign reads, "Chic's chicks, both young and old, for sale."

With her winning personality and ability, we can easily see why Margaret Keane has succeeded as a student. She was very interested in telephones and is now Chief Operator in Worcester.

Under her capable supervision and instruction, Alice George and Celia Ranieri, former classmates, have become competent operators.

Since graduation, Joe Kraft has been busily engaged in selling real estate. His sites around the dam are especially attractive. Why not help him out?

You girls who are interested in having your hair curled and waved must have noticed that Ruth Gibbs has opened a "Beauty Shoppe" on High Street. It would be well if you patronized her.

A staunch upholder of the 18th amendment is Joseph McNamara. He is now employed by the government as a federal prohibition officer.

Having gained her experience in "Woolworth's," Elin Linstedt is now head buyer of the largest department store in Clinton.

Harp Flanagan now owns a large gas station which is located conveniently for motorists who have to walk back for gas. As a side line, he sells eggs very cheaply.

In the habit of a nun, Mary Kelly is now teaching little children their A. B. C.'s.

Ably directing a school of Public Accounting is Henry Flaherty, assisted by William Haney.

Mary Carr's experience as a note dispatcher during C. H. S. days has won her a high position in the postal department.

One may see at Lyonhurst, gliding gracefully across the floor, teaching the patrons the correct way to trip the light fantastic, a tall graceful figure. He will be recognized as Maurice Cannon, our former classmate.

In society's columns one often sees the name of Frances Gould. After having traveled extensively, she has now settled in her town house.

We hear often of Harvard's champion track teams which have been developed under Marty Hester's skilful supervision.

One of the foremost automobile manufacturers is our own Anna Brodrick, a woman pioneer in this industry.

Paul Finnerty has recognition as a "Hot-Dog-King." His standard price is two for a dime, instead of one for a nickel.

Eva Hillner, in a Clinton office, was stimulated to study law, and is now a famous Barrister.

The latest collegiate styles are now designed and sold at the large Modern Haberdashery owned by Billy McGrail.

Bertha Stearns is now president of the Woman's Club Incorporated of America.

A new bridge is under construction, supervised by George Manter, the famous engineer. This bridge connects Duck Harbor and Burditt Hill. By eliminating the ferry and relieving traffic congestion, the Harbor pupils can reach school on time.

Mae Walsh is now a famous woman politician, and she controls the entire feminine role of the Acre.

Bart McNamara is a big league umpire, calling the balls and strikes as they speed merrily over the plate.

A life-saver to young housewives is the "little Delicatessen around the corner," ably conducted by Mamie Johnston.

George McPherson, after acquiring his Ph. B., has skyrocketed the business world.

Throngs of people have been visiting the Metropolitan Art Museum daily where Sylvia Altman's pastel sketches are on exhibit.

Lillian Munster is now a teacher of Latin in dear old C. H. S. She has replaced Mr. Mitchell and is an ideal favorite with the students.

"Hank" Kerrigan is famed far and wide for his culinary ability as the capable chef of the Harbor Cafe for deep sea fishermen.

Georgianna and Angela Despotopulous have formed the Despotopolous Sisters' Fruit Co., which is the largest of its kind in Clinton.

The Clinton Daily Item is strengthened by the addition of Lillian Vattes and Emma Taubner to its news department. We must say that what news gets by them isn't worth knowing.

New York City's largest hospital has recently benefited by the addition of Mary Mangan to its staff, as head Dietitian.

Agnes Salmon and Catherine Ball now run the chief photographic studio in Clinton and have a permanent contract to take all H. S. pictures.

Then a roar of static broke in and the voice of the announcer could be faintly heard saying, "Station C. H. S. was signing off. Good Night."

"REDUCTIO AD ABSURDUM."
